AYER'S
CHERRY
PECTORAL,
FOR THE RAPID CURE OF
Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BRIMFIELD, MASS., 20th Dec., 18[illegible]
DR. J C AYER I do not hesitate to say the [illegible]est remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold is your CHERRY PECTORAL. [illegible] constant use in my practice [illegible] family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints
EBEN KNIGHT M D

A. B MORTLEY Esq of UTICA N Y writes [illegible] your PECTORAL myself and in my family ever since [illegible] and believe it the best medicine for its purpose [illegible] With a bad cold I should sooner pay [illegible] bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

SPRINGFIELD, MISS., Feb. [illegible]
BROTHER AYER: I will cheerfully certify your [illegible] best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough [illegible] and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity [illegible] south appreciate your skill and commend [illegible] people.
HIRAM CONKLIN [illegible]

AMOS LEE, Esq., MONTEREY, IA., writes, 3d Jan. [illegible] a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors [illegible] took many medicines without relief finally tried your [illegible] the advice of our clergyman The first dose relieved [illegible] in my throat and lungs less than one half [illegible] made me completely well Your medicines are the [illegible] as well as the best we can buy and we esteem you [illegible] your remedies, as the poor man's friend"

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MANCHESTER, PA., Feb. [illegible]
SIR Your CHERRY PECTORAL is performing [illegible] in this section. It has relieved several from alarming [illegible] consumption and is now curing a man who has [illegible] affection of the lungs for the last forty years.
HENRY L PARKS, [illegible]

A. A. RAMSEY M D ALBION MONROE Co., [illegible] Sept. 6, 1856 'During my practice of many years I [illegible] nothing equal to your CHERRY PECTORAL for giving [illegible] to consumptive patients, or curing such as are [illegible]

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most [illegible] proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in [illegible] [illegible]al.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which [illegible] many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no [illegible] reach but even to those the CHERRY PECTORAL [illegible] and comfort.

ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY March [illegible]
DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL: I feel it a duty and a pleasure [illegible] you what your CHERRY PECTORAL has done for [illegible] had been five months laboring under the dangerous [illegible] of Consumption, from which no aid we could [illegible] much relief. She was steadily failing until Dr. [illegible] city where we have come for advice recommended [illegible] your medicine We bless his kindness as we do [illegible] she has recovered from that day. She is not yet [illegible] used to be but is free from her cough and calls herself [illegible] Yours, with gratitude and regard
ORLANDO SHELBY, OF [illegible]

[illegible] do not despair till you have tried AYER'S [illegible] PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical [illegible] and its cures all round us bespeak the high merit [illegible] —Philadelphia Ledger

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

[illegible] sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been [illegible] their utmost to produce this best, most perfect [illegible] which is known to man Innumerable proofs are [illegible] Pills have virtues which surpass in excellence the [illegible] medicines, and that they win unprecedented [illegible] of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take [illegible] Their penetrating properties [illegible] the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, [illegible] and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors [illegible] and grow [illegible] into their natural action and impart healthy [illegible] strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the [illegible] complaints of every body but also formidable and [illegible] diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. Being sugar-coated they are pleasant to [illegible] being purely vegetable are free from any risk of [illegible] have been made which surpass belief were they not [illegible] stated by men of such exalted position and character [illegible] the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen [illegible] have lent their names to certify to the public [illegible] of my remedies, while others have sent me the [illegible] of their conviction that my [illegible] to the relief of my afflicted [illegible] Agent below named is pleased [illegible] Almanac containing directions [illegible] of their cures of the following complaints [illegible] Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, [illegible] Headache arising from a foul Stomach, Nausea, [illegible] Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and Pain arising [illegible] Loss of Appetite, all Ulcerous and Cutaneous [illegible] which require an evacuant Medicine Scrofula [illegible] They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating [illegible] cure many complaints which it would not be supposed [illegible] reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, [illegible] Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and [illegible] and other kindred complaints arising from a low [illegible] body or obstruction of its functions.

THURSDAY MORNING, OCT 29 1863

California and Oregon Rail Road

The following article from the Statesman of this week, deserves, in our judgment, the cordial approval of the people of Oregon. The rail road to the Sacramento Valley we must and shall have, whoever opposes it will wake up some morning to find a locomotive running over him.

The survey of route for this proposed rail road is nearly completed. The operations of the surveying party have been under the superintendence of Mr S G Elliott, an engineer, competent to ascertain and detail all the conditions of the route, as is sufficiently evidenced by the adoption of his survey of the Pacific Rail Road route over the Sierra Nevada mountains. He is besides this, fully endorsed by the California press. It would not be necessary to state these facts only that our people may be satisfied that Mr Elliott is not a speculative adventurer. His statements we believe to be entitled to credence and the candid consideration of our people.

The survey having gone over all the difficult portions of the route, an estimate may be made of the cost of building the road, which will not vary more than a thousand or two dollars per mile from the actual expenditure. The grades are accurately determined, the number of bridges and their approximate cost ascertained and the necessary excavations computed. The maximum grade on the Siskiyou mountains does not exceed eighty three feet per mile and no where else is the grade so steep as that. Many of the cheapest roads in the States have grades of one hundred and sixteen feet. From Portland to the Calipooia mountains there is about one hundred and fifty miles that will scarcely have an excavation or an embankment. There is a similar piece of the line from Marysville to Shasta. The Siskiyou and Umpqua mountains present the only obstacles to constructing the entire line as cheaply as any road in the Middle or Western States, with the exception of the small advance in price of labor. The average cost per mile for the whole line, as computed by Mr Elliott, will not exceed $33,000. It is thus shown by figures that the road is not beyond the reach of capital invested at remunerative rates.

It is not expected that Oregon or California or both together can spare from their business $20,000,000. Indeed, if these two States were the only resources from which to derive the means of construction the enterprise would be chimerical at present, but happily the building of the road will not depend on any such slender means. There is Eastern and European capital waiting for the report of the present survey. It will be invested in the road if the survey demonstrates its practicability. To doubly insure such investment it is contemplated to lay the whole matter before Congress at the coming session for the purpose of procuring such national bounties as are usually bestowed upon roads of this character. There is scarcely a doubt that Congress will give such facilities as rights of way, grants of land and security to titles. With these aids, the companies already organized in each State will be able to secure the requisite funds as fast as they can be applied.

By a proper liberality, on the part of our people, the project may be surely carried on to that point where capital will seek the investment instead of being sought after.

THE "DEMOCRATIC" PARTY.—The Express of yesterday gives its idea of the Democratic party thus

"The Democratic party may well be proud that it is a peace party, when such a war is deluging the country with fraternal blood. It is a peace party because it is a Union party. Peace alone can secure Union between hostile sections, neither of which is strong enough to subjugate the other. Another year of this war will so thoroughly fix these great facts in the minds of the people of the free States, that, as certain as reason and interest influence human actions, they will rise up in their strength and call to the Administration of this Government the wise and honest and patriotic statesmen, who are alone to be found in the great party of the Constitution."

What is left of the Democratic party will doubtless concur in the above. Union Democrats and men who are very strongly attached to Democratic principles, will not take this dose of sympathetic treason. "It is a peace party because it is a Union party," says the Express. We say it is a peace party because it is in sympathy with the slave institution of the South. It is a peace party because the slave power in the old Democratic party was always dominant. It is a peace party because it expects that the rebellion will triumph. It is all these, and anything to oppose the Administration and give aid and comfort to the rebellion.—Marysville Appeal

TELEGRAPH INTEREST TRANSFERRED.—We learn from the Jacksonville Intelligencer that the California State Telegraph Company have bought the interest of Mr Strong in the line from Yreka, California, to this city. Mr Whittlesy, the agent of the Company has been preparing the poles to receive the wires between Jacksonville and Yreka, and it is reported that some fifteen thousand pounds of the wire has already arrived at Yreka. The general belief is that the line will be completed to Jacksonville by the first of December next.

NEW KIND OF PEACE.—A correspondent of the Springfield (Mass.) Republican suggests a new way of bringing about peace. "Let a committee, consisting of Vallandigham, Seymour, Wood, and George Lunt, visit the Confederacy in the name of the party and in pathetic tones, imitating the beast on which Balaam rode, plead 'Am not I thine ass, on which thou hast ridden ever since I was thine?'"

WILL THE SOUTH SUBMIT?—The London Times of 7th September, says

The disaster so long averted at Charleston seems to be imminent and the Federals will probably be able to sate their revenge on that gallant little city. The destruction of Fort Sumter is not, indeed, the capture of Charleston, but it is the most important step to it. * * * The Federals may go on in their career of conquest and the cities of the Southern coast may fall into their hands one by one, but every victory adds fuel to the original flame of secession. When two nations go to war upon some definite ground of quarrel the battles and sieges are fair trials of strength, the side which finds itself the weakest may consent to a compromise and the two nations which have no further disagreement may unite again in honorable friendship. But when a nation like the South is fighting for bare existence all terms of submission are impossible. The invader may cut deep into the country but the soul of the national life escapes his sword, and his cruelties only quicken the pulse of the heart of independence. The Federals may gain point after point but they cannot conquer the hatred which they have raised and inflamed themselves. Not the least hopeless feature of the struggle, too, is the furious passion for war which it seems to be rousing in the Northern mind. The insatiate rage of conquest grows by what it feeds upon, and every capture of a city or conquest of an army only rouses an appetite for further destruction and fresh victories. So long as the Federals can fight and get the means of fighting, so long will they be willing and eager to fight and, beyond question so long they will have to fight.

SHELLING, AND HOW THE MISSILES ARE DODGED.—A correspondent writing from Morris Island to the N. Y. Christian Advocate and Journal says

At night we can see the path of a shell through all its journey, lighted as it is by the burning fuse. When the range is two miles the track of a shell from a mortar describes very near half the arc of a circle. On leaving the mortar it gracefully moves on climbing up and up into the heavens till it is nearly or quite a mile above the earth and then it glides along for a moment, apparently in a horizontal line; but quickly you see that the little fiery orb is on the homestretch describing the other segment of the circle. A shell from a Parrott rifled gun in going two and a half miles deviates from a straight line not quite half as much as a shell from a mortar. But in passing over this space considerable time is required. The report travels much faster than the shot. A shell from a mortar will make a distance of two miles in about thirty seconds and from a Parrott gun in about half that time. The flash of a gun at night, and the white smoke by day, indicate the moment of the discharge, and fifteen or twenty seconds give an abundance of time to find a cover in a splinter proof, behind a trench, or something else. It is wise and soldierly to do so, but many pay no attention to those hissing, screaming, flying in the day time, if a shot from a gun invisible devils except to crack jokes at their expense, for occasionally one pays his life for his fool hardiness.

THE COPPERHEAD CRY OF PEACE.—The Westliche Post, German organ of St. Louis, in its issue of September 16th, says

The more success attends the advance of the Union armies, the stronger grows the cry of the Copperheads and Conservatives for peace. They fear of course that their faithful allies of the Southern Chivalry might be too deeply humbled, and so beaten that they can never assume their former power. Hence they want peace and restoration of the Union with the old slaveholders' aristocracy, the old slave trade, slave catching and slave holding Governors, slaveholder Mayors, slaveholder Judges, and slaveholder Legislatures—and finally with the old rule of the slaveholders in the White House and the Capitol. This is what they want, and this is what they fear to lose, certainly if the war is carried on to the end, that is, until the rebels throw down their arms and submit to the laws, conditions and punishments of the victors. This is the reason why these men cry for peace. But, however much they howl, they cannot point to a single fact that might indicate a desire for peace or submission on the part of the rebels. Jeff. Davis orders new levies, threatens even with an army of half a million negroes which he wants to lead into the field against the Union; his agents and accomplices work incessantly for recognition in England and France, and negotiate his war loans, and equip in the ports of England large rams to destroy our trade. This is the way in which the secesh government works. Does it indicate inclinations for peace?

WHITE SLAVES.—Some people have held that none but Africans were held as slaves in the South, but here is what a Michigander writes to his local paper from Tennessee

The negro enlistment has been commenced, and day before yesterday 500 were regularly mustered into the United States service, and I have examined and passed nearly one hundred more that are physically incapacitated to become soldiers, and put on our blue coats instead of their miserable filthy rags. These men you might think were genuine blacks, but I could not see it when I had them naked. When one sees standing before him a man of mature years, who possesses not the slightest trace of negro blood in a single feature or complexion and hair straighter than you can generally find in the Anglo Saxon race and he tells you that his father is Captain Higgins of the rebel army; that he sold him to Mason, near Decatur, Alabama, when fourteen years old, I think it was enough to demonstrate what was the ruling passion in the South that made them "desire to be let to depart from us in peace." Such men I think are those desirous of being the makers of their fortunes and then can be mean enough to make a war for the possession of the same. This is not an isolated case. Two others this same day, presented themselves for examination and the most critical examination, by all present, could not detect the slightest trace of negro blood, and yet one had been a slave for thirty six years and the other forty two years and that, too, in the land of American freedom (down in Southern chivalry.)

The abolition papers and speakers are constantly denouncing the Democracy as "traitors, and enemies to the country." If this is so the Providence Post says "it is certainly wonderful that the abolitionists should be striving to get so many of them into the army."

That's the best machine for the manufacture of good Union men we know of. Every Copperhead who serves in the ranks and smells a little secesh powder comes out a purified Democrat. This is the necessary ordeal this class of men have to pass to restore themselves to the name of Democrats and friends of the Union. Look at the soldier vote from Ohio. See how the Democrats are cleansed of their leprous spots. Our p[illegible] for our Democrats ought every one of them go to the Union school down South. On their return you would hear none of them talking about Democracy.—Appeal

Additional Eastern News

NEW YORK, Oct 21.—A special dispatch to the Tribune says Trains run out to Bristow. Large quantities of railroad material have been transported for putting the track in repair and rebuilding the bridges. The rebels destroyed the track for miles burning ties and digging down the grading. Prisoners assert that the road is entirely destroyed for 24 miles beyond Catlett Station and that Lee's object was to capture supplies and so disable the road that we could not disturb him until reinforcements from his army could be sent to Bragg and [illegible]. Our forces are now pushing on—thus far without opposition. Many indications [illegible] being able to [illegible] before a general engagement this side of the Rappahannock. Our cavalry captured about [illegible] prisoners last night at Catlett's. Large numbers of our cavalry are being refitted with fresh horses and equipments, and everything put in preparation for work.

The special dispatch to the Times dated Washington Oct 20th says The mystery of Lee's movement last week is unraveled. Part of his army was at Culpepper this morning being rapidly embarked on trains of cars for the Southwest.

LATER.—An officer just in front brings intelligence that Lee's whole infantry force is across the Rappahannock. Some of his cavalry were still on this side and some on the other. Our reconnoissance under Merritt, yesterday advanced as far as Warrenton Junction meeting but few rebel cavalry, who retired as we advanced.

CHICAGO, Oct 21.—The following is from the Washington correspondence of the Times dated Army of the Potomac Oct [illegible]th. The sudden withdrawal of Lee's army from our front is explained. Information received at headquarters in Washington confirm the report of deserters and prisoners in reference to Burnside's gaining a position in the rear of the rebel army and actually threatening their chief base of supplies—Lynchburg. Deserters state that on Friday night (16th) Lee received positive orders from Richmond to fall back on Gordonsville with all haste to protect Lynchburg against the advance of Burnside's army which was already within 130 miles of that place. Lee at once commenced a retrograde movement completing his withdrawal from our immediate front by Sunday night (18th.) This movement of the enemy was suspected on Sunday, and preparations were made by Meade to reconnoiter in force to find Lee's whereabouts. But certain contradictory information received previous to the movement caused delay. On Sunday night positive intelligence was received of the enemy's retreat. Buford's and Kilpatrick's cavalry started at once in pursuit. At daylight next morning (19th) the whole army advanced. Buford came up with Lee's rear in Thoroughfare Gap on Monday at noon, when a severe skirmish ensued. The rebel cavalry, with artillery covering their rear, wheeled and gave battle to Buford who fought them with cavalry and artillery. For four hours the duel continued, when Buford made a spirited charge and repulsed the enemy in confusion, driving them into the mountains.

The enemy in their retreat tore up the greater portion of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad from Manassas to Culpepper. Deserters say the destruction is complete. All the bridges have been burned and the abutments blown down. The rails have been torn up for miles, piled on the ties and burned. It will require at least a week to put the road in running order. Workmen are already at work. The position of our army at present is not stated.

WASHINGTON, Oct 21.—Accounts from the Army of the Potomac to yesterday noon state that Kilpatrick's cavalry pushed back the rebel cavalry beyond Drainsville, toward Warrenton. There was considerable fighting with but little loss to us.

It is positively stated that Lee was at Warrenton on the 19th, and formed a line of battle and posted artillery. Our troops were moving steadily onward in two columns. Buford reports that there are no enemy in force at Thoroughfare Gap. The rebels were in force at Buckland's Mills four miles from Gainesville, yesterday afternoon. Our troops are advancing. A great battle is considered imminent.

NASHVILLE, Oct 20th.—Gen Hooker is at Stevenson, Alabama. E M Stanton Secretary of War, has arrived on a special train.

VICKSBURG, Oct 18th.—In a recent skirmish with Wirt Adams' cavalry, on the Big Black fifteen rebels were killed and wounded. Adams was driven beyond Port Gibson.

Little Rock advices to September 29th say that Kirby Smith had arrived at Arkadelphia. He had removed Price and put Holmes in command. This produced a mutiny among the officers and men who swore they would not serve under Holmes. A large number deserted—one account says 700 in two days. It is believed the whole effective force of the rebels does not exceed twenty thousand. On account of the disaffection of the men, the army except one brigade, was moved from Arkadelphia to a point further South. A large amount of Commissary and Quartermaster's stores have been removed to Macon bayou. Missouri and Arkansas troops were sent to guard them. The Texas soldiers were left behind. Macon and Marshall were short of supplies for the department. Bitter feeling has arisen between Generals Price and Holmes since the defeat of the Confederates at Helena. On Holmes superceding Price, the animosity increased and resulted in a challenge to fight a duel. The friends of the two officers procured a settlement of the difficulty and there are now no two men more friendly. The reconciliation had a good effect upon Holmes' command.

The Union feeling in Arkansas is increasing. Secret societies have been organized, a number of the most unsuspected supporters of the Confederacy being active members. In fact the organization is so powerful that at the August election, Morgan, Union candidate to represent the district composed of the nineteen northern counties in the Confederate Congress, was elected over the secession candidate.

European Intelligence

NEW YORK, Oct 21.—The British Government on the 9th inst formally seized one of the suspected rams built by Laird on the Mersey. Another authority says both have been seized. It is not known what additional evidence has been procured to induce the step.

It was stated that the rebel Government had resolved not to grant clearances to blockade runners except on condition of their carrying one third of the outward bound cargo on Government account, and that a pressure was being used to get control of the exportation of cotton on private account except such as is pledged to holders of the cotton loan.

The Times thinks the details of the battle of Chickamauga establish the total defeat of R[illegible] and charges the Federal Government with keeping back the news.

The Polish and Mexican questions were unchanged.

The Paris Patrie maintains the complete accuracy of its statements that Czar[illegible] the Poles and Hungarians.

There was somewhat of a tendency to a panic in money matter.

A Constantinople telegram says the Porte [illegible] and that Russia favors this [illegible] difficulty.

THE CITY COUNCIL met last evening—Councilman Dodge acting President. Present, Messrs Austin, Dodge, Knott, Lucas, and Monnastes.

A resolution declaring seat of T L Wat[illegible] vacant was carried. An election to fill the vacancy failed.

Petition for lamp post on corner of Second and Jefferson street was granted, and the Committee on Streets and Public Property ordered to attend to the matter.

Petition of Joseph Knott for use of street for building purposes was granted.

City Recorder was granted further time to prepare statement of receipts for fines, &c, in his office.

Committee on Fire and Water reported bill of S Sherlock & Co, $20 25, correct. Ordered paid.

Report was received from City Collector, according to resolution passed last week. Referred to Committee on Ways and Means.

Bills of Wilcox & Co, for lamp posts, F McGuire, for work done on Front and Taylor streets, W B Clark, $20, and Daily Times [illegible]0, were ordered paid.

Bills of Daily Times, $5, J F McCoy, $16 25, and Daily Times, $44, were referred to committees.

A resolution to repair cistern tops was adopted.

Ordinance to purchase a lot for Columbian Engine Co, No 3, was read first and second times.

Bids to furnish the city with light were [illegible]d, and the contract was by resolution awarded to David E Swan, on his giving the proper securities. Mr Swan is to light the [illegible] for six months from the 1st November, with coal oil, for $5 per month for each lamp, and furnish wick and trim the lamps. The [illegible] are to burn from 6 P. M. to 6 A. M.

FELL OVERBOARD.—As the Wilson G Hunt [illegible]red her wharf, last evening, one of the [illegible] hands, in walking along the guard with a line to pass ashore, missed his step and took an involuntary bath in the Willamette. For a moment the danger was imminent of his being drawn under by the suction of the paddle-buckets, but he struck out manfully, and was speedily rescued.

GOLD.—Wells, Fargo & Co's Express messenger brought down $20,000 in dust on the [illegible], last night. Rather a small amount.

STILL COMING DOWN.—Quite a large number of miners came down the river last night, many of whom are "seemingly well to do," as regards the "filthy lucre."

READY TO REFUND.—By reference to an advertisement under the proper head, it will be seen that the City is prepared to refund money paid for licenses under Ordinance No. 141, the Supreme Court having decided [illegible] said ordinance illegal.

NEWSPAPER FAVORS.—We are under obligations to Mr Charles Barrett, Periodical and Stationery dealer, Front street, for a generous supply of Pictorials and newspapers from all parts of the Union. Duplicates can be found at his place of business.

VOTE OF THANKS.—At a meeting of the Washington Guards, held at their Armory on Wednesday evening, October 28th, 1863, the following vote was unanimously passed

That we tender our sincere thanks to the Judges of the shooting at the Company's target excursion on the 26th inst., to Mr W Proebstel who kindly permitted the [illegible] to use his grounds and ferry boat on that occasion, to the Mechanics Brass Band and to the citizens generally who contributed by their presence to the interest and enjoyment of the excursion.

C B TALBOT, Sec'y.

THEATER.—Last night was the benefit of Mr. Waldron, who appeared successfully as Sir Harcourt Courtley, in "London Assurance," before a crowded house. The entire company done exceedingly well, and were enthusiastically applauded. "Ernest Maltravers" and "Maid of Munster" are advertised for to-night.

"TEMPERANCE SALOON."—We received a [illegible] late last night, in the shape of a very palatable "temperance drink," labeled "Jacques a Reims," with the compliments of Messrs Brannan & Sloan, proprietors of the "Temperance Saloon," just opened on Front street, next door to the "Temperance House."

THE TRAITOR'S RETURN.—"It needs no great stretch of prophetic vision to conceive of the time when he will return to Ohio, as [illegible] of old returned from fields of glory."—Express

That's "prophetic vision" for you. Only think how old and hoary Val will be, and how many generations shall have passed away. Ohio, his betrayed State, will contain eight or ten millions of people, and when the long-lost prophet shall make his re-appearance on earth, the people will search the books of early history to learn who the man was! What a change in the world will have taken place during Val's absence!—Marysville Ap[illegible]

THE DRAFT A FAILURE.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Herald, referring to this subject, says, that the authorities here have come to the conclusion that the draft will not pay. Under its process they obtain more money than men, and the character of the substitutes prevents the really worthy men who are drafted from serving. It is probable that the draft will be abandoned for a new plan of volunteering with bounties derived from the draft commutation fund. It has been ascertained that more men were obtained with less expense under the recruiting system than by the draft, and there is a strong disposition to return to the volunteer enlistment. One singular feature has been developed by the draft. Numerous letters have been received from Senators and members of Congress, who voted for the Conscription bill, but not one of them has asked for a construction of the law that would take a drafted man into the army. All have requested such a construction as would let a constituent escape the draft.

The correspondent of the Sacramento Union also says that "it is not a pleasant thing to write, but it must be confessed that the execution of the Conscription Law has been a failure. That is, it is a failure so far as the results are concerned, for, as already hinted, it has failed to produce men enough to swell the armies of the Union to anything like their maximum standard. Various causes have combined to produce this result, among the first of which is the too liberal margin for exemption from service on account of physical disability: and the second is the incompetence and weakness—to say the least—of enrolling and examining officers. The details of the manner in which the draft has been carried into effect in some parts of New England are discouraging and sickening in the extreme. Men who are perfectly able-bodied and hale have been exempted on the ground of physical disability; and it is notorious that such exemption was the result of favoritism, political chicanery, or downright bribery. A system of corruption, imbecility and mismanagement has characterized the machinery of the draft throughout the country, which has tended to bring the measure into disrepute and has filled the hearts of all loyal and patriotic men with sorrow, and mortification. It is a source of indignation and grief to every honest loyalist that there are citizens of our own loyal States who rejoice over this state of things, and who but poorly conceal their gratification at the failure of the draft. May the Lord punish them; we cannot. It is most likely that a new draft will be ordered shortly, and if it should be laid before the new Congress assembles, the list of physical ails and aches, which have been so prolific a source of reasons for exemption, will be cut down by the War Department, from whom they emanated; but if the draft shall not be made until Congress shall have met, it is most likely that the three hundred dollar exemption clause, which has been the stumbling block of captious Copperheads, will be stricken out of the law; and then we shall see if those who have cried out against this 'discrimination in favor of the rich against the poor' will like it any better when they must go or find their own substitutes."

DRAFT—A NEW SOURCE OF DISEASE.—Orpheus C. Kerr, the Historiographer of the Mackeral Brigade, while lately approaching the Capitolian City, encountered a man—or, rather, in his own Johnsonian words:

When very near the city, on my return home, I met a chap weighing about two hundred and twenty-five pounds, who was on his way to a lawyer's office to get his exemption from draft duly fixed.

"See here, my patriotic invalid," says I, rather skeptically, "how do you come to be exempt?"

"I am exempt," says he, in a profoundly melancholy manner, "because I am suffering from a broken heart."

"Hem," says I.

"It is true," says he, sniffling dismally, "I asked the female of my heart to have me. She said I hadn't postage stamps enough to suit her ideas of personal revenue, and she didn't care to do my washing. That was enough; my heart is broken, and I am not an able-bodied man."

Drafting, my boy, is of a nature to develope the seeds of disease in the hitherto healthy human system.

CONJUGAL AFFECTIONS.—The king of Armenia not fulfilling his engagement, Cyrus entered the country, and having taken him and all his family prisoners, ordered them instantly before him. "Armenus," said he, "you are free; for you are now sensible of your error. And what will you give me if I restore your wife to you?" "All that I am able." "What, if I restore your children?" "All that I am able." "And you, Tigranes," said he, turning to the son, "what would you do to save your wife from servitude?" Now Tigranes was but lately married, and had a great love for his wife. "Cyrus," he replied, "to save her from servitude, I would willingly lay down my life." "Let each have his own again," said Cyrus; and when he was departed, one spoke of his clemency, another of his valor, another of his beauty and the graces of his person; upon which Tigranes asked his wife "if she thought him handsome." "Really," said she, "I did not look at him." "At whom, then, did you look?" "At him who offered to lay down his life for me!"

THE MULE.—A correspondent of the Wisconsin Farmer sums up the merits of the mule as compared with the horse, as follows:

1. He is much more easily and cheaply raised than his cousin, the horse.
2. He eats but little more than half as much when matured.
3. He is satisfied with and thrives upon a coarser kind of provender.
4. It costs less to keep him in harness and in shoes.
5. He is proportionately stronger.
6. He is very much tougher.
7. He is less liable to disease.
8. He has more sense and docility.
9. He is better adapted to some important kinds of work.
10. He is a true puller, and, when loaded, a quicker traveler.
11. He sells for a better price.
12. He lives more than twice as long.
13. He is better looking. [No accounting for taste.]
14. In nothing but fleetness is he excelled by the horse.

A very worthy and pious old dame had several books lent her which she could not read, so got a little girl to read to her. The curate of the church lent her the "Pilgrim's Progress," and a nephew a copy of "Robinson Crusoe." Having read them alternately, the dame got the text a little mixed up; and when the curate called upon her and asked how she liked "Pilgrim's Progress," he was somewhat surprised when she replied, "it's a marvelous book truly; why, what big troubles him and his man Friday undergoed."

THE GAZELLE.—A claim recently located in Reese river is called "The Gazelle." Of course it is—"The wild gazelle with silver feet."

A CLEVER HIT.—We find the following terse communication in the London Daily News of the 8th instant:

Sir:—We are at war with the New Zealanders—"we for empire—they for independence."

What if President Lincoln recognizes their belligerent rights?—and what if New York capitalists take a New Zealand loan—and if an American Laird should furnish a New Zealand Alabama, to be commissioned by a Maori lieutenant and manned by British seamen from the naval reserve, and so on? Why not? and what then? I am, sir, etc.,

"NEMESIS."

This is but a small crumb, but John Bull can find a great deal of meat in it should he choose to.

A CLEAR CONSCIENCE.—How bravely a man can walk the earth, bear the heaviest burdens, perform the severest duties, and look all men boldly in the face, if he only bears in his breast a clear conscience, void of offense to God or man. There is no spring, or no spur, no inspiration like this. To feel that we have omitted no task, and left no obligation undischarged, this fills the heart with satisfaction, and the soul with strength.

CATECHISM.—Who was the eldest son of Noah? Little Girl.—Japhet. Teacher.—Then why are they mentioned as Shem, Ham and Japhet? Little Girl.—Because the people there liked sandwiches, and therefore put Ham in the middle.

VERY APROPOS.—A lady well advanced in maidenhood, at her marriage requested the choir to sing the hymn commencing:

"This is the way I long have sought!
And mourned because I found it not."

No undue influence will be exercised over the religious opinions of the pupils; however, for the maintenance of good order, all are required to conform to the external discipline of the house.

AYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BRIMFIELD, MASS., 20th Dec., 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER: I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your CHERRY PECTORAL. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints. EBEN KNIGHT, M. D.

A. B. MORTLEY, ESQ., of UTICA, N. Y., writes: "I have used your PECTORAL myself and in my family ever since you invented it and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

SPRINGFIELD, MISS., [illegible]

BROTHER AYER: I will cheerfully certify your PECTORAL is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, Croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people. HIRAM CONKLIN

AMOS LEE, ESQ., MONTEREY, IA., writes, [illegible]: "I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your PECTORAL by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs; less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MANCHESTER, PA., [illegible]

SIR: Your CHERRY PECTORAL is performing marvellous cures in this section. It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years. HENRY L. PARKS

A. A. RAMSEY, M. D., ALBION, MONROE CO., IOWA, writes, Sept. 6, 1855: "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your CHERRY PECTORAL for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable."

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach; but even to those the CHERRY PECTORAL affords relief and comfort.

ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, [illegible]

DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL: I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your CHERRY PECTORAL has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your skill, for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well.

Yours, with gratitude and regard,

ORLANDO SHELBY, of [illegible]

Consumptives, do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all around us bespeak the high merits of its virtues. — Philadelphia Ledger.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these PILLS have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are, at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow-men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing directions for their use and certificates of their cures of the following complaints: —

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from a foul Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and Pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Ulcerous and Cutaneous Diseases which require an evacuant Medicine, Scrofula or King's Evil. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on. Ask for AYER'S PILLS, and take nothing else. No other they can give you compares with this in its intrinsic value or curative powers. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.
